WEC's weekly Sunday Spotlight series focused on multifaceted amateur Brandi Cyrus. Brandi keeps busy performing as a DJ, hosting podcasts and keeping up with her Style Native blog, but she always makes time for her number-one passion: horses. Brandi caught the riding bug at a young age, learning to ride from her father, Billy Ray Cyrus. She has dabbled in all corners of the equestrian industry, but has found an affinity for the jumpers. Brandi and her up-and-coming jumper, Starpower, made their way to World Equestrian Center – Ocala to show in the Adult Amateur jumpers and she took the time to chat about her many ventures and her beloved "Star".
