

Thank You for Supporting DEFHR's Inaugural Equine Welfare Charity Golf Classic

We had a wonderful time at our inaugural Equine Welfare Charity Golf Classic held June 16, 2022, at the historic Worthington Manor Golf Club in picturesque Frederick County, Maryland.

It was an exciting day of competition and camaraderie in support of DEFHR's critical care efforts for equines that have suffered from abuse and neglect. Thank you to all who joined us.

Patuxent Valley Middle Schoolers Meet Our Horses

Earlier in June, DEFHR welcomed 240 sixth-grade students to the farm from Patuxent Valley Middle School. The students spent two hours learning about different facets of equine care and behavior. It was their only field trip of the year and we are grateful they were able to spend it at DEFHR with our horses. A big thank you to everyone involved behind the scenes and everyone that volunteered their time during the field trip. We were happy to see students with smiles on their faces!

We love connecting horses and people. If you'd like to plan a trip to the farm, please email outreach@DEFHR.org.

A Few Spaces Left for DEFHR's Summer Legacy Camp

Legacy Camp recently kicked off and it is wonderful to have our farm filled with smiling campers again. The horses are also loving the extra scratches and attention.

We have a few spaces remaining this summer. If you would like to register your child, please click the button below.

Horse Network "Training Helps Rescues Focus on the Future"

DEFHR never rushes the process of rehabilitating and training horses. Rather, we treat each horse as an individual and focus on realizing their full potential in whatever direction that may be. This method proved valuable for an older gelding Gideon who is now available for adoption through DEFHR's Guardian Program. Click the button below to read Gideon's story in our monthly column on Horse Network.

Featured Horse of the Month: Obadiah

13-year-old Pony Cross gelding, 10.2hh

Obadiah is a handsome pony with a big step and beautiful locks. This gelding would make a fantastic driving pony or companion and also has experience with groundwork, obstacle work, and liberty work. Obadiah can be a little shy, so he will need a quiet handler that will help grow his confidence. Obadiah is currently turned out with mares, geldings, and donkeys and is quiet in the group—he is often seen snoozing in the sunshine!

Visit defhr.org/available-horses/ and email adopt@DEFHR.org for details on Obadiah.
