Established in 1958, the Washington International Horse Show is one of North America's premier equestrian competitions.

The show, which is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit charitable organization, features a variety of events, including Kids' Day, Barn Night, WIHS, an official USEF Heritage event presented by Experience Prince George's, and the WIHS Equitation Finals and $406,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington for the President's Cup.

About Washington International Horse Show

The 2022 Washington International Horse Show featured a diverse range of equestrian events, with highlights that included the Second Annual Hollow Brook Sportsmanship Award, which honored a junior rider who best personifies the highest standards of integrity, sportsmanship, honor, kindness, and generosity.

In addition, the show recognized the achievements of various riders and horses, with special awards such as the Rave Review Challenge award tray presented to the top Champion Hunter for the 12th consecutive year.

Results

Emma Brody and Nicarmargue emerged victorious in the $125,000 Forte Grand Prix presented by Blue Chip Farms, winning in a time of 32.751 seconds. Beisel would have to settle for second. Meanwhile, in the $102,000 Evergate Gold Cup, Cooper Beisel of Goshen, Ohio, was the first to advance to the jump-off. Twenty-four horse-and-rider combinations contested the first-round track designed by Paul E.以后
