Pro Tips: Eagerly Equine

PALM BEACH ILLUSTRATED

Wellington is horse country, and horse country needs world-class facilities like Palm Beach Equine Clinic, where Dr. Scott Swerdlin serves as president.

Dr. Swerdlin is one of the lucky few who knew what he wanted to do from a young age – at just eight years old, he could already foresee a future as an equine veterinarian. Raised around horses by a polo-playing father, Dr. Swerdlin came by his passion organically.

How To Monitor the Financial Health of Your Business With BarnManager Pro

HORSE NETWORK

In the equestrian business, we tend to spend the majority of our time in the stable, leaving little time for office operations that are essential to the barn's financial health.

Learn about tips from guest blogger Dora Bennett of Pro-Office Support LLC on areas where BarnManager Pro can help you run your barn and your business more effectively.

For example, every stable has a feeding chart as it is essential to keep track of changes in diet, medication, and supplements. It is important to be proactive in keeping it updated for the health of the horses, but have you ever thought about how not billing those updates can affect the financial health of your business?

Little Creek Equestrian: Tiffany Foster Builds Her Dream

EQUESTRIAN LIVING

For most riders, the chance to design and build their dream farm is simply that, a dream. For Canadian Olympic show jumping athlete Tiffany Foster, her hard work, creativity, and a team of experts helped her build an efficient, beautiful setting for her horses to call home. The 10-acre property in Wellington, FL, has everything an equestrian athlete could want, including two riding arenas designed and built by Wordley Martin Equestrian Surfaces, eight paddocks, two barns with a total of 24 stalls, a walker, indoor wash racks, a vet and farrier station, and a saltwater spa for the horses. For the people, amenities include a lounge, staff lunchroom, tack rooms, commercial laundry machines, staff apartments, and a five-bedroom house.

The Cost of Rescuing Horses

HORSE NETWORK

In January 2021, 19 horses arrived at Days End Farm Horse Rescue (DEFHR) in Woodbine, MD, after they were rescued from squalid conditions in St. Mary's County, MD. First responders found the horses standing in deep muck with hay of such poor quality it was nearly inedible and no water source in sight. Unfortunately, when rescuers arrived, they discovered they were too late for two horses who had passed away on the property. It is a scene far too familiar for staff at DEFHR, who work tirelessly to save these horses and then rehabilitate and train them with the goal of matching them with a loving forever home.
