

World Equestrian Center Highlights From Ocala Winter Spectacular X and Wilmington Winter Classic Spring Forward

Aron Vale (USA) and Prescott, owned by Thinklikeahorse, secured victory in the $100,000 CaptiveOne Advisors Grand Prix CSI3* at WEC – Ocala.

"You can't beat the crowd here. Last week everyone was on the edge of their seats during the class, and tonight they were all about the jump-off. Prescott really likes showing here under the lights and always does well."

Lani Hutchison (USA) and her own Iconic earned the win in the $30,000 Shires Equestrian Products Grand Prix at WEC – Wilmington.

"We imported 'Icon' when he was six, and he is turning 10 this year. We just moved up to the prix at the end of last year so this is huge for him! I started him in the baby two-foot jumpers, and I wasn't quite sure if he would make it up to this level. We have shown here quite a lot, and this is his place."

Matt Martin and Diamant's Legacy, owned by Debbie Smith, topped the podium in the $20,000 Golden Ocala Golf and Equestrian Club 3'6"-3'9" Hunter Derby at WEC – Ocala. The duo received excellent scores of 82 and 91.

"Originally, [Diamant's Legacy] was purchased by his owner Debbie Smith to be her jumper. We did one show in Aiken, and during week two we decided to play around in the hunters. He seemed to like it a great deal. I think he has tremendous style. Each week he gets softer and smarter, trying to figure it out."

Melissa Donnelly and Elizabeth Becker's Corlando 49 captured the win in the $15,000 USHJA National Hunter Derby 3' Open at WEC – Wilmington.

"Cory' is mister personality! He certainly had his game face on today. He does the 3'6" Performance Hunters with me, and when his owner is home from school she does the Amateur-Owner Hunters. I am blessed that while she is away at school they still allow me to keep him going."

Taylor Flury (USA) and Carrasca Z, owned by Aliboo Farm Inc., were victorious in the $15,000 Buckeye Nutrition Futures Prix at WEC – Ocala.

"[Carrasca Z] had an injury two years ago where I was told he'd never show again, but I am a bit like a badger and didn't give up. This was his fourth show back, and he has all the heart in the world. I felt like I could go for it with him."

Leann Kelly (USA) and Graf Joe, owned by Sarah Hunter, won the $10,000 Futures Prix at WEC – Wilmington.

"I watched Sarah [Long], and I knew she was very fast on her first horse. I thought really in order to win I needed to do seven down the first line and just continue."

This week's Wilmington Sunday Spotlight shines on Australia's Samuel Overton of Overton Showjumping. The hardworking athlete juggles his incredible professional career while also running a business designing, manufacturing and installing sleeper cab air conditioners on the road. He stopped at World Equestrian Center – Wilmington with his 14-year-old Warmblood gelding, Oaks Cassanova, to jump indoors and prepare for their debut at the FEI World Cup™ Finals in Omaha, NE. After claiming second place in Saturday evening's $30,000 Grand Prix, we caught up with Overton to learn more about his career.
